

We understand and appreciate the significance of what has been said. We are taking it very seriously and wish to avoid any misunderstanding. In view of its importance it is not possible to give a substantive response immediately. It is however important that this acknowledgement is given promptly. We are working to reply further as swiftly as possible.

wording is very similar to a message from B Gov
to S.F.

S.F. date this message as 26/2/93.
