

Dates are in reverse because it was easier to trace.

June → Walter.

DATE.

SUBJECT.

2/10/99.

- Invitation to repeat 72 arms removal.

19/6/99.

- Courage to walk away from the trap of the decommissioning issue.

- Treat metal in the weaponry for what it is + finish the argument once + for all.

25/4/99.

- Tom McGuirk's radical suggestion "legalise the IRA" and have them sit at the table.

11/4/99.

- Time is more important than weapons.

(Pre-dates McGuirk's call for IRA + others to become more involved)

3/2/99.

- Walter's visit.

Arenda - No. 3 - 3rd Space Paper of 18/10/98.

21/3/99.

- No lecture but support to find the authority of the leadership to walk us out of the arms impasse.

→ 3/2/99.

- Walter's visit.

Read a paper "Decommissioning and the 3rd space" dated 31/1/99.

- | Date | Subject |
|-------------|--|
| 22/1/98 | - 3rd space visited by June. |
| 18/1/98 | - Fax detailing arrangements for visit of 3rd Space by June. |
| 27/10/98 | - The Steamroller.
N.B. Walter had fractured leg. |
| 18/10/98 | - First appearance of 3rd space. |
| 16/10/98 | - Decommissioning + the importance of timing. - Moral high ground. |
| 18/8/98 | - (Post Omagh) face head on the dissidents. June acknowledges the difficulties of negotiators being seen in different light by the rank and file. (anif only paper). |
| 15/8/98 | - Experience + skills offered + ready for work. |
| 30/8/97 | - Splitting |
| 18/7/97 | - Belfast Telegraph P.13.
- The N.I.O.'s letter to M. McGuinness.
- M. McGuinness letter of 9/7/97. |

Date.Subject.

15/3/97.

- Call for new ceasefire
- British party politics + failure to read the Irish situation from a British perspective.

20/12/96.

- Position 1 - Continue ^{no ceasefire} limited campaign
- Position 2 - Wait + see.
- Position 3 - Military Campaign back firmly.

23/10/96.

Pre-dates above paper and similar in content.

5/12/95

- Option 1 - Return to War.
- Option 2 - Take moral high ground + expose Brit. Gov.
- Option 3 - Hold peace process + remove tactical control of the process by Brit. Gov.

30/1/95.

- A narrative piece suggesting the options above.

* 16/11/94.

~~Letter to June.~~

- June - Letter but handwritten by Star (or so Eamonn believes)
- Don't go unless the Joint Declaration is published.